§ 1 Convening of Meetings

(1) The Supervisory Board convenes when required, but at least once every quarter (Art. 9a Para. 2 of the Austrian Research and Technology Funding Act (FTFG)). The Chairman (in the event that he or she is unable to attend, his/her deputy) can convene a meeting at any time. A meeting shall be called without delay by the Chairman if at least one member requests one and includes a written proposal for the agenda.

(2) The members shall be notified of the date and time of the meeting in writing or by email at least 14 days prior to the meeting. This notice shall include an agenda and shall be coordinated wherever possible with the members of the Board. (2) The order in which motions made on an agenda item shall be voted on shall be determined by the Chairman. Upon request of the Supervisory Board, motions can pass by simple majority. A motion regarding the rules of procedure shall always be voted on without delay.

(3) Motions regarding the rules of procedure only pertain to the procedure and include for example:

The committees can be appointed permanently or for specific tasks.

(2) Each committee must be composed of at least three Supervisory Board members. The chairman of the committee, provided that the law does not provide otherwise, shall be chosen from among the members of the committee by the committee members.

(3) The provisions of these rules of procedure shall also apply, as far as they are applicable to committees.

member.

(2) The circulated document must contain at least one motion with a brief explanation. The motion shall be written in such a way that it can be voted on by “yes” or “no”. The voting form must also include the option to vote for “discussion”.

(3) The circulated document shall be sent to all voting members and include notice of a period of at least one week within which they must cast their vote.

(4) A motion shall be carried if the majority of members required for the agenda item has voted in favour of it within the specified period of time. Voting by proxy is not permitted. A resolution may not be passed, however, if at least one member requests a discussion.

They must include the names of the members present and absent along with their proxies; the place, date, beginning and ending of the meeting; the respondents invited; the agenda; the motions filed; the resolutions; and the outcomes of the votes.
